

MY VOTE PLAN

ELECTION DAY IS TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6TH, 2018

Voting is not like falling in love. You don't have to love everything about a candidate. Or a Proposition. Or a Ballot Measure.

Don't feel overwhelmed! You don't have to vote for everything on the ballot! It's more important that you vote for the things you care about than to sit out the election completely!

Finding out where, who & what to vote for is easy to research online at a site like BallotReady.org. It's even easier (& more fun) to do it with your friends.

Propositions: Yes, they are confusing. It's easier with friends. Gather and figure them out together. One tip is to check out who is endorsing or who created them. Do those orgs reflect your values?

List your choices here: _____

Tweet/Instagram/Facebook to tell your friends and family that you voted! Maybe they are on the fence? You might be the one to inspire them! Tag @abandofvoters
